

My next step in following Jesus is...

Is your next step to fully trust in Jesus? Have you considered baptism?

Is your next step to find new ways to grow? Have you considered finding a friend to pray with on a regular basis?

Is your next step to find new ways to give? Save a portion of your allowance to give away or find a way to volunteer your time.

Is your next step to reach out of your comfort zone and to go and tell others about Jesus? Who needs to hear of God's love for them? Who can you talk to?
